Overview

Donna earned her undergraduate degree from Rutgers University in New Brunswick in 1991. She earned her law degree from Rutgers School of Law in Camden in 1994. After law school, Donna served as a law clerk for the Honorable Robert Page, P.J., Family Court in Camden County. Subsequently, Donna spent 24 years in public service with the Atlantic County Prosecutor's Office.

During her tenure at the Atlantic County Prosecutor's Office, Donna served as Acting Deputy First Assistant Prosecutor. She also served as Chief Assistant Prosecutor of the Criminal Justice Reform, Grand Jury, and Domestic Violence Units. Donna has instructed law enforcement officers on Criminal Justice Reform as well as served as a liaison between the Atlantic County Prosecutor's Office and the Atlantic County Judiciary regarding Criminal Justice Reform. She has extensive experience investigating and litigating narcotics, computer crimes, and domestic violence cases as well as litigating other complex cases including homicides.

In addition to her extensive experience in Criminal Law, Donna has developed an interest and focus in Workers' Compensation Law. Donna is committed to the idea that people who are injured at work deserve to be compensated for their injuries. Her prior litigation experience enables her to be a very effective advocate for those in need. She enjoys working with a strong team to provide quality legal representation to HCK clients.

Donna is admitted to practice law in the State of New Jersey. She is excited to bring her legal skills to the firm of Helmer, Conley and Kasselmann, PA and to continue to advocate for members of the community.

Donna enjoys spending her time with family engaging in various outdoor activities. In her spare time, she enjoys cozying up with a good book.
