Academics

Mr. Kasselmann earned his undergraduate degree from Rutgers University at New Brunswick and his law degree from Rutgers University School of Law at Camden. He also earned a Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) from Farleigh Dickinson.

Professional Experience

Mr. Kasselmann worked as a deputy public defender in Camden for one year before he began a 30-year career with the Camden County Prosecutor's Office. He was Section Chief of the Grand Jury and then promoted to Deputy First Assistant Prosecutor from 1996 until his retirement on October 1, 2004. Mr. Kasselmann has tried many complex trials and has taught numerous seminars for the continuing legal education programs. As a certified instructor, he has also instructed law enforcement officials at the Camden County Police Academy over the course of his career. Mr. Kasselmann prosecuted an attempted murder case that appeared on Court TV in its entirety. His success marked one of the first cases where an AIDS bite lead to an attempted murder conviction.

Admitted to Practice

Mr. Kasselmann is admitted to practice in both the state and federal courts in New Jersey and has practiced law since 1973.
