

Howard C. Gilfert

Of Counsel

E-Mail:

Phone:

Fax:

Overview

Academics

Mr. Gilfert earned his undergraduate degree from Shippensburg University in 1983, and his law degree from Dickinson School of Law in 1986.

Professional Experience

Mr. Gilfert spent 25 years with the Camden County Prosecutor's Office in Camden, New Jersey. During his career, he was a Section Chief of the Homicide Unit and Shooting Response Team, a Section Chief and Deputy Section Chief of the Child Abuse Unit, and a Trial Attorney in a variety of areas. Additionally, Mr. Gilfert was certified as an instructor by the New Jersey Police Training Commission and was responsible for teaching courses on various topics in substantive criminal law and criminal procedure to police and corrections recruits at the Camden County Police and Corrections Academies during the course of his career.

Admitted to Practice

Mr. Gilfert is admitted to practice in New Jersey and Pennsylvania and has practiced law since 1986.

Affiliations

Member of the Camden County Bar Association

Adjunct Professor at Wilmington University; 2015 to present

Adjunct Professor at Esperanza College; 2015 to present

Publications

Authored 11 articles for publication in The Barrister on topics including Megan's Law, Miranda, Expungement of Convictions, Juvenile Confessions, Strict Liability Offenses and Case Law Updates; 2007 to present

Related Practice Areas

New Jersey Criminal Lawyer for Top Legal Defense

New Jersey Expungement Lawyer

New Jersey Juvenile Lawyer

New Jersey Municipal Court Lawyer