Overview

Timothy C. Alexander concentrates his practice on Civil Rights and other civil litigation as well as municipal court practice. He is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and New Jersey as well as the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Tim earned his J.D. from Rutgers University School of Law in Camden, New Jersey, in 2012. He earned an M.B.A. from Drexel University LeBow College of Business in 2008. Tim also earned a B.S., summa cum laude, in Business Management from Drexel University College of Professional Studies in 2006.

During the course of his legal career, and prior to joining Helmer, Conley & Kasselman P.A., Tim worked with the firm of Jacobs & Barbone, PA in Atlantic City, NJ. Tim has also practiced as an Assistant City Solicitor for the Civil Rights Unit of the Philadelphia Law Department; he successfully tried Civil Rights matters in Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas and the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Tim served as an Assistant District Attorney in the Trial Division for the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office where he worked as a Major Trial attorney.

Prior to his legal career, Tim enjoyed a long and distinguished career in law enforcement for the Atlantic County Prosecutor's Office in Mays Landing, New Jersey, where as a Detective Captain he was in charge of the Criminal Investigation Section.

In his off time, Tim enjoys building and flying remote control airplanes.
